

Understanding Consequences

Every decision you make has consequences. Understanding the potential positive and negative consequences of a proposed course of action is an important life skill. Use the organizer below to consider the possible consequences of a decision you have to make.

The decision I am facing is _____

The course of action I am considering is _____

PROs of this Action:

CONs of this Action:

I think the best thing to do is _____ because _____
