

Recurring Theme

A theme is the central message or idea in a literary work. A theme is not the same as a topic. The theme is a statement the author is making about the topic through the literary work. A recurring theme is a message that occurs in more than one literary work.

DIRECTIONS: Think about the texts you have been reading recently in class. Identify one recurring theme in the texts.

Statement of Theme: _____

Find a passage from each text to support your answer. Include the page #.
