Inferences

DIRECTIONS: Make a reasonable inference from each sentence.

Sentence	Your Inference
Shannon made eye contact with every dog she passed and made sure to say hello.
Chris wore his headphones everywhere he went and avoided making eye contact with anyone.
George borrowed five books from the library. The librarian called, "See you next week!" as he headed out the door.
The car made a grating noise when Dad turned the key. He tried again, and this time the car sputtered and then died.
Dylan shoved everything that was in his floor under head bed. Then he called out to his mother, "I'm done!	