

What Do You Know About The Moon

Across

2. The Moon formed between 30 and 50 million years _____ the formation of the Earth.
6. An early 17th century scientist who made the first map of the moon.
7. The Moon is the Earth's only _____ satellite.
9. A U.S. Air Force project that considered detonating a nuclear bomb on the moon.
10. The Moon completes one of these around the Earth every 27.3 days.
11. A famous 20th century astronomer who worked on as a mathematician on the above-referenced Air Force project.

Down

1. The layer of a celestial body between its core and its crust.
3. A natural _____ is a celestial body that orbits around another celestial body.
4. The moon is believed to be composed primarily of this metal.
5. Our moon is the _____ largest moon in the solar system.
8. Rocks striking the moon's surface have caused these formations, which you can see with binoculars or a small telescope.