

Name _____ Colons

Combining Sentences with Colons

DIRECTIONS: Combine each pair of sentences using a colon.

1. Jack refuses to go to the rock climbing place. Jack is afraid of heights.
2. Jill is making a list of colleges she's interested in. Jill is interested in Towson, University of Maryland, and Mary Washington College.
3. I live by the words of Dr. David R. Hawkins. Dr. Hawkins said, "There is no such thing as a justified resentment."
4. I have a single purpose in life. My single purpose in life is to write a great American novel.
5. Please let me explain myself. I have a hard time opening up to people.

