

Character Traits

An internal character trait is one that is revealed through what the characters says, does, thinks, or feels. An external character trait is one that is visible on the outside of a character. For example, a character who is very meticulous may be very fussy about the way they dress.

DIRECTIONS: Choose one of the main characters from the story. Identify several internal and external character traits. Support your answers with text evidence.

Internal Trait: _____

External Trait: _____

Evidence:

Evidence:

Internal Trait: _____

External Trait: _____

Evidence:

Evidence: