

ANSWERS

1. After the Union Army defeated the Confederates at Antietam in September
2. He felt that the major Union victory would give the order public support
3. The Emancipation Proclamation led to the Thirteenth Amendment to the Constitution several years later, which outlawed slavery in the United States.