

Name _____ Subordinating Conjunctions

Subordinating Conjunctions

DIRECTIONS: Use a subordinating conjunction to combine each pair of sentences.

1. Today I have band practice. Band practice is after school.
2. I found my wallet. It was where I left it.
3. John called to ask. He wants to know whether I will go to the party.
4. I never study. Hank studies all the time, but still struggles.
5. We don't have to work hard. Now my father pays for everything.
6. I will be happy. Getting my own place will make me happy.
7. I will have a dog. I will get one even if I get married.
8. Mom said we could go. She said we had to do our chores first.
9. I will eat. I will also do my homework.
10. I should let her know. She might worry.