

Making Verbs Intransitive

DIRECTIONS: The verb in each sentence below is transitive. Rewrite the sentence so that the verb becomes intransitive. You may add, remove, or change words or phrases as needed so that the sentence makes sense. Any information that follows an intransitive verb should be in the form of a phrase.

1. I ate eggs for breakfast.
2. While he worked, Jonah sang a song.
3. Gina wrote notes in her journal all afternoon.
4. I walked the path between here and school.
5. Sharon didn't understand the problem.
6. George gathered his things and joined the others.
7. Paul read his composition to us.
8. The boys do not know the answer.