

Name _____ Singular Pronouns

Singular Pronouns

A pronoun is a word that takes the place of a noun.

DIRECTIONS: Circle the singular pronoun in each sentence.

1. Pam was late, but she caught up quickly.

2. I missed Peter today.

3. He said to put these toys away.

4. Ian dropped it in the water.

5. Nobody ever tells me anything.

6. Janet gave you a really nice gift.

7. That little dress is adorable on her.

8. She remembers everything anyone says.

9. He was the life of the party.

10. Letting go of old habits has been hard for her.

