

Name _____

International Children's Book Day

Reading Comprehension Questions Answers

1. International Children's Book Day is celebrated every year on April 2nd. This date is important because it's the birthday of famous storyteller Hans Christian Andersen.
2. The International Board on Books for Young People, or IBBY, started International Children's Book Day.
3. The purpose of International Children's Book Day is to celebrate children's books and reading, and to emphasize the importance of access to books for all children.
4. Schools might celebrate International Children's Book Day with special activities like book sharing, book fairs, or visits from authors and illustrators.
5. Libraries might celebrate with story times and book-related crafts, and families might celebrate by reading their favorite books or starting a new book together.

