

ANSWERS

1. So who's right?
2. Clinton is comparing two opposing philosophies, those of the Democratic and Republican parties.
3. He expresses doubt about which position is correct, but he and the audience already know which he believes is correct.
4. He goes on to say which philosophy he believes is better and why.