

ANSWERS

1. When we got there, John had already been waiting half an hour. He was starting to get impatient, and he wasn't very friendly.

1. When we got there John, who had already been waiting half an hour, was starting to get impatient, and he wasn't very friendly.

1. When we got there, John had already been waiting half an hour; he was starting to get impatient, and he wasn't very friendly.

2. Wendy does well in school without even studying. She still doesn't have a lot of confidence, though, because she is really shy, and she doesn't like to work on group projects

2. Wendy does well in school without even studying, but she still doesn't have a lot of confidence because she is really shy and doesn't like to work on group projects

2. Wendy does well in school without even studying though she still doesn't have a lot of confidence; she is really shy, and she doesn't like to work on group projects.