1. Lydia says Chris has a crush on me. I don't think so, even though Chris told somebody who told somebody who told Lydia that he did.
2. Writing has never been the best thing that I do. Math is the best thing that I do; I like math because I like numbers more than I like words.
3. Little did they know that their luck was about to change; a cool wind had blown into town, and as it turned out, some good luck blew in along with it.
