

Name _____

Rugby

Answers

1. Usually, a rugby team has fifteen players.
2. The ball used in rugby is oval-shaped.
3. A try in rugby is scored when a player places the ball in the opponent's goal area.
4. In rugby, a conversion is an extra two points earned by kicking the ball over the goal post after scoring a try.
5. The Rugby World Cup is a prestigious event held every four years, where the best national rugby teams compete for the title.

