

ANSWERS

The contrasting ideas are "love" and "hate." The speaker says that we love what is good and hate what is bad, but we have to choose to love or hate things which are neither good nor bad.