

Name _____

LinkedIn

Answers

1. LinkedIn was created by Reid Hoffman and his team in 2002.
2. The main purpose of LinkedIn is to provide a platform where professionals can connect with each other, share their work experiences, and find job opportunities.
3. A resume is a document that lists a person's education, work experience, and skills. On LinkedIn, users create a profile page that serves as their online resume.
4. Users on LinkedIn can create a profile, join groups related to their job or interests, connect with other professionals, and find job opportunities.
5. LinkedIn Learning is a feature of LinkedIn that offers online courses on a wide range of subjects.

