

ANSWERS

The protagonist is a young adult, usually of a sensitive and questioning nature

The story often begins with a tragedy or a loss that deeply affects the protagonist and sets their journey of discovery into motion

The protagonist looks for answers to their questions through their experiences

There is typically a conflict between the protagonist and society's values

As the protagonist matures, they eventually accept society's values and find their place there