

The Best Horse

Alice was spending the summer at her uncle's horse farm. Uncle Roger wanted to teach her to ride, but Alice was scared. One day, he took Alice out into a field to meet Applejack. "Applejack is the best horse," Uncle Roger said. "He is very gentle, and he will go slow." So Uncle Roger got Applejack ready and Alice let him help her up into the saddle. That summer, she learned to ride. She agreed that Applejack was the best horse.

Number the story events from 1 to 3.

Alice learns to ride horses.

Alice is scared.

Alice meets Applejack.