

ANSWERS

People who are considered "crazy" actually show a lot of "divine" type sense'.

People who seem sane are actually quite crazy.

The overall message is that those who give into society's rules, even if the rules are crazy, are considered sane, while those who disagree with the rules are branded as crazy.