

Name _____ Parable

Write a Parable

1. What is an important moral or spiritual lesson that you feel like everyone ought to know?

2. The lesson you wrote down above will be the moral for a parable that you will write. Next, brainstorm the following:

What are some consequences of living according to your lesson?

What are some consequences of NOT living according to your lesson?

3. Think of how you might put all of these ideas together into a short parable. Identify a possible beginning, middle, and end for your story.

beginning
end

4. On a separate page, write your parable.
