

ANSWERS

1. Perseus was the son of the Greek god Zeus and the mortal woman Danae.
2. Medusa was a monster who was terrorizing the island. Her hair was writhing snakes and she could turn a person to stone with one look.
3. Athena gave him a shiny shield, and Hermes gave him shoes with wings. Hermes also told him to never look directly at the snakes on Medusa's head.
4. He looked at her reflection in the shield and cut off her head.
5. He finds Andromeda chained to rocks. She promises to marry him if he kills the sea monster that is going to eat her and she agrees.
6. Phineus was supposed to marry Andromeda. Perseus turns him to stone with Medusa's head.