

ANSWERS

1. It presents the life of David Copperfield from childhood to maturity;
2. his mother remarries a man who sends him away; Dora dies
3. he runs away; he does some soul-searching;
4. society's view of wealth and class as measures of a person's value
5. he matures from being wild-hearted to choosing a sensible woman (Agnes) as his wife.