

ANSWERS

originating or occurring naturally in a particular place

native

original

earliest

first

Indigenous People's Day honors Native American history and culture.

It coincides with Columbus Day. Many states and cities celebrate Indigenous People's Day instead of Columbus Day because many believe Columbus should be celebrated for an exploration that led to the death and slavery of native peoples.