

ANSWERS

1. It is the lifestyle of people who live on Okinawa their whole lives that contributes to their longevity. Being geographically located on Okinawa as one ages has no logical effect on longevity.
2. Women are also “men” in the context of this statement. “Men” as opposed to “animals” means human beings, and women are human beings.
3. The mother’s compliment has nothing to do with whether or not she has a favorite child.
 4. the two events are not necessarily related; but are coincidental.
 5. the two events are not necessarily related; but are coincidental.
6. the misuse of authority (in this case reputation) to steer away from more germane aspects of the issue.
7. Dr. Michaels’ personal life has nothing to do with his skills as a doctor.