

ANSWERS

1. An archaism, also called archaic diction, is a word or expression that is no longer regularly used, or which is only used in specific fields or studies.
2. Archaisms exist because language is always evolving.
3. medieval, Victorian, and Edwardian ages, and even the 19th and 20th centuries
4. will vary