

ANSWERS

Surrealism

a style of literature and art which achieves an effect which is strange and irrational yet still understandable characteristics of surrealism include a dream-like quality, symbolism, and collage imagery can sometimes appear realistic at first glance, but can ultimately be hard to follow.

surrealist artists sought to reflect the chaos and irrationality that they saw in the world in their work

Both Surrealism and Absurdism

both can be hard to follow both are reactions to chaos and inability to make sense of our world

Absurdism

explores themes of meaninglessness and existentialism using surrealism and comic elements is much more extreme than surrealism as it contains no believable elements and no necessary relationship to reality
