

ANSWERS

1. A parable is a short story that teaches a moral or spiritual lesson, often using symbols or metaphors that the audience can relate to.

2. from Greek parable which means "comparison"

3. An apologue is a type of parable that features exaggerated details and talking animals

A fable is a type of apologue

4. In a parable, the characters are people; in a morality play, the moral concepts ARE the characters

5. morality play