

ANSWERS

Indigenous People's Day

celebrates Native American history and culture recognizes the trauma and damage caused by the "discovery" of America by the Europeans

Both Indigenous People's Day and Columbus Day

observed on the first Monday in October both reflect on the change that occurred when Europeans "discovered" America in 1492

Columbus Day

We celebrate Columbus Day to remember when Columbus discovered the Americas in 1492 celebrates exploration and discovery