

ANSWERS

Surrealism is a style of literature and art which achieves an effect which is strange and irrational yet still understandable.

Absurdism explores themes of meaninglessness and existentialism using surrealism and comic elements. Absurdism has many nonsensical elements – sometimes the entire work is nonsensical from a realistic or rational point of view.

Magic realism is a subgenre of fantasy in which the world is basically believable, but it contains a few supernatural, surreal, or bizarre elements.

Realism is a style of art in which the world is predicted in a completely realistic and accurate way.

most realistic		least realistic
realism	magic realism	surrealism	absurdism