

Patty the Parrot

Once upon a time, Patty the Parrot lived on an island in the middle of the sea. She was friends with many pirates over the years. Then one day, while Patty was out flying, she got caught in a big storm. The winds were so strong, they blew her far from her island, to the mainland. There, she found an open window and went inside.

When the boy that lived there saw Patty, he was surprised. "Can you talk?" he asked. Patty said, "Patty want a pirate!"
