

ANSWERS

1. The central idea of a text is the main or most important idea.
2. A supporting detail is information that supports the central idea.
3. The supporting details help to support, prove, or explain the central idea.
4. will vary
5. the central idea is the idea which is supported by other details.