

Name _____

November Writing Prompts

1. Thankful Turkeys - Imagine you're a turkey who can speak. Write a conversation between you and a family trying to decide what to have for Thanksgiving dinner.
2. Fall Nature Walk - Take a virtual walk through an autumn forest in November. Describe the colorful leaves, the sounds you hear, and the cozy feeling of being surrounded by nature.
3. If I Were a Thanksgiving Dish - If you could be any Thanksgiving dish, what would you be and why? Write a short story from the perspective of that dish during the Thanksgiving feast.
4. November Time Capsule - Create a time capsule for November of this year. Write a letter to your future self, predicting what you think your life will be like 10 years from now.
5. National Native American Heritage Month - Learn about Native American cultures and write a short essay about a tribe that lived in your region. Describe their traditions, homes, and daily lives.
6. Historical Feast Adventure - You're invited to attend the first Thanksgiving feast in 1621. Write a diary entry about your experience, the people you meet, and the food you enjoy.
7. Veterans Day Tribute - Write a letter to a veteran, thanking them for their service and sacrifice. Share why you admire their bravery and dedication to our country.
8. November Dreamscape - Describe a dream you had that took place in a magical November world. Include details about the setting, the characters, and the adventures you had.
9. Invent a New November Holiday - Create a new holiday for November that celebrates something fun or unique. Write a description of the holiday and how people might celebrate it.
10. Thanksgiving Day Time Travel - You find a time machine that takes you to the very first Thanksgiving. Write a story about your journey back in time and how you help the Pilgrims and Native Americans.
11. Fall Family Traditions - Write about a special fall tradition your family has in November. It could be cooking a certain dish, going on a hike, or something else you all enjoy.
12. Autumn Animal Adventures - Choose an animal that's active in the fall, like squirrels or migrating birds. Write a short story from the animal's perspective as they prepare for winter.
13. If I Were a November Superhero - If you could be a superhero with a power related to November, what would your power be and how would you use it to help others?
14. November Weather Reporter - Pretend you're a weather reporter for November. Write a script for a weather forecast, describing the changing temperatures and weather conditions.
15. Fall Food Poetry - Write a poem that celebrates the delicious flavors of fall in November. Use descriptive language to capture the tastes and aromas of your favorite autumn foods.

