

Name _____

December Writing Prompts

1. Santa's New Helper - Santa needs an extra helper this year, and he chooses you! Write a story about your exciting adventure at the North Pole, helping Santa prepare for Christmas.
2. Holiday Traditions - Write about your favorite holiday tradition in December. It could be decorating the tree, baking cookies, or something unique your family does to celebrate.
3. Snowflake Adventure - Imagine you're a snowflake falling from the sky in December. Write a short story about your journey to the ground and the friends you make along the way.
4. Winter Wonderland Descriptions - Imagine you're in a magical winter wonderland in December. Describe the scene around you, from the glistening snow to the twinkling lights.
5. A Letter to the North Pole - Write a letter to Santa Claus, telling him about your year and the gifts you hope to receive. Don't forget to ask about the reindeer and Mrs. Claus!
6. Holiday Recipe Creation - Invent a new holiday recipe for December. It could be a festive dessert, a warm drink, or a savory dish. Write down the ingredients and instructions.
7. If I Were an Elf - If you were an elf at the North Pole, what job would you have and why? Write a story about your role in helping Santa and his team.
8. Gift-Giving Adventure - You receive a magical gift that allows you to give the perfect gift to anyone. Write a story about the heartwarming reactions of those you surprise.
9. December Time Travel - You find a time machine that takes you to a historical event in December. Write a journal entry about where you go and what you experience.
10. Holiday Lights Poem - Write a poem about the beautiful holiday lights that brighten up the streets and homes in December. Use descriptive language to capture the magic.
11. Gingerbread House Adventure - You shrink to the size of a gingerbread person and explore a giant gingerbread house. Write a story about the delicious and exciting things you discover.
12. Winter Animal Friends - Choose a winter animal like a penguin or a polar bear. Write a short story from the animal's perspective, describing how they enjoy the cold weather.
13. If Snowmen Could Talk - Imagine you build a snowman that comes to life. Write a dialogue between you and the snowman, sharing your thoughts and learning from each other.
14. December Diary Entry - Write a diary entry about a day in December from the perspective of a character in a favorite holiday movie or story.
15. New Year's Resolutions - Reflect on the past year and write about your goals and resolutions for the upcoming year. What positive changes do you want to make in the New Year?

