Line(s)	Character	Example of Hubris
will vary	Odysseus	Odysseus shows hubris is while he and his men are trying to escape from the Cyclops Polyphemus by calling out to him and taunting him instead of quietly making his escape. Polyphemus calls on his father Poseidon, who answers his prayer by making it take 20 years for Odysseus to get home.
will vary	Polyphemus	Polyphemus demonstrates hubris by believing he can beat anyone just because he is a giant.
will vary	Suitors	The suitors display hubris by moving into Odysseus' house and thinking that one of them can win over his wife. In the end, they are killed when Odysseus returns home.
