

Name _____

January Writing Prompts

1. New Year's Adventures - Imagine you woke up on New Year's Day with the ability to fly! Write a story about the exciting adventures you have as you soar through the sky.
2. Winter Wonderland - Describe your dream snowman. What would you name it? How would you decorate it? What fun things would you do together?
3. Martin Luther King Jr. Day - Write a letter to Martin Luther King Jr., thanking him for his important work in making the world a better place. Explain what his actions mean to you.
4. Polar Bear Expedition - Imagine you're on an expedition to the North Pole to visit polar bears. Write a journal entry about the amazing things you see and learn.
5. Snow Day Fun - Describe the best snow day you've ever had. What activities did you do? How did you make the most of the snowy day off from school?
6. My Winter Olympic Sport - If you could create a new Winter Olympic sport, what would it be? Describe how the sport is played and what skills are needed to win.
7. Arctic Animal Adventure - Choose an arctic animal (like a penguin, seal, or arctic fox) and write a story about a day in its life in the freezing cold environment.
8. The Great Hot Chocolate Debate - Write an argumentative essay explaining whether marshmallows, whipped cream, or sprinkles make the best topping for hot chocolate.
9. A Penguin's Journey - Imagine you're a penguin on a journey to find a new home. Describe the challenges you face and the friends you make along the way.
10. Winter Wonders - Make a list of five things you love about winter. Write a paragraph explaining why each of these things makes winter special.
11. Lost in a Snowstorm - Write a story about getting lost in a snowy forest and how you use your wits and bravery to find your way back home.
12. My Snowy Pet - If you could have a magical snow creature as a pet, what would it look like? Describe its appearance, abilities, and the fun adventures you'd have together.
13. Winter Senses - Close your eyes and imagine a winter scene. Describe what you see, hear, smell, and feel in this imaginary winter wonderland.
14. Building an Igloo - Pretend you're building an igloo in your backyard. Write a step-by-step guide on how to construct the perfect snow shelter.
15. The Northern Lights Adventure - Imagine you're on a journey to see the Northern Lights in Alaska. Write a journal entry describing the awe-inspiring beauty of the lights dancing across the sky.