

ANSWERS

Odysseus tells Polyphemus that his name is "Nobody." When the Cyclops later tells the others that Nobody has hurt him, they don't come to help him because they think no one has done anything to him.