

Name _____

Viruses: Tiny Packages with Big Effects Answer Key

1. Viruses are super tiny packets that need to get inside living things to work and grow.
2. Viruses are even smaller than bacteria.
3. Yes, viruses can be helpful. For example, some viruses attack harmful bacteria or can be used in medical research.
4. Viruses make us sick by getting inside our cells and making many copies of themselves.
5. The job of our body's immune system is to fight against viruses and other invaders.
6. One way we can prepare our body to fight against viruses is by getting vaccinate.