

Name _____

Mrs. Moon

Answer Key

1. The main character of the poem is the moon, referred to as "Mrs Moon".
2. The moon is described in a personified and whimsical manner, possibly highlighting its beauty, constancy, or mystery.
3. The poet seems to have feelings of admiration, curiosity, and perhaps affection towards Mrs. Moon.
4. The poet might have chosen "Mrs" to give the moon a personal, relatable, and perhaps nurturing or mature quality.
5. Answers will vary based on personal interpretation. Some students might feel a sense of wonder, others might find it amusing, and some might see the moon in a new, more personal light.