

Name _____

June Writing Prompts

1. Summer Adventure Plans - School's out, and it's time for summer fun! Write a list of all the exciting things you want to do in June. It could be visiting a water park, going camping, or anything else you're looking forward to.
2. World Oceans Day Explorations - Imagine you're a deep-sea explorer on World Oceans Day (June 8th). Describe your journey to the bottom of the ocean, the amazing creatures you encounter, and any underwater treasures you find.
3. Dreamy Ice Cream Shop - You open your own ice cream shop just in time for National Dairy Month (June). Create a menu with unique flavors and describe the decorations in your shop that make it special.
4. Summer Solstice Story - On the longest day of the year (June 21st), magical things start happening! Write a story about how the extra sunlight brings surprises to your town, like talking animals or objects that come to life.
5. Fathers Are Awesome - With Father's Day in June, write a letter to your dad describing all the reasons he's awesome. Share a favorite memory you have with him and explain why he's special to you.
6. Sunflower Adventure - You find a magical sunflower that can transport you anywhere you want. Write about the exciting places you'd visit and the incredible things you'd see on your sunflower adventure.
7. Summer Safety Tips - Create a fun and colorful poster with tips on how to stay safe during summer activities like swimming, riding bikes, and playing in the sun.
8. Animal Beach Party - Imagine all the animals having a beach party on the first day of summer. Write a story about the different animals and how they enjoy the beach and ocean.
9. Flag Day Celebration - Learn about Flag Day (June 14th) and design your own flag for a made-up country. Describe the colors, symbols, and what your flag represents.
10. June Time Capsule - Imagine you're making a time capsule to be opened in 10 years. Write a letter to your future self about your favorite things, friends, and activities this year.
11. Jungle Safari - In June, you embark on a jungle safari adventure. Describe the animals you encounter, the challenges you face, and the secret treasures you discover deep within the jungle.
12. Summer Haiku - Write a series of haiku poems that capture the essence of June. Each haiku should be three lines long and describe different aspects of the month, such as sunny days, blooming flowers, or outdoor games.
13. If I Were a Dolphin - Pretend you're a dolphin for a day in June. Write a story about your underwater escapades, the friends you meet, and the thrilling tricks you perform.
14. A Gift for Nature - National Pollinator Week is in June. Choose a pollinator like bees, butterflies, or hummingbirds and write a story about how you help these important creatures in your community.
15. June's Time Machine - You discover a time machine that takes you back to a historical event that happened in June. Write a journal entry about what you witnessed and how it felt to be a part of history.