

Elementary

The Missing Library Books - Your school library books start disappearing one by one! Write a story about how you and your friends turn into junior detectives to solve the case of the missing books, following clues and uncovering surprising suspects.

The Vanishing Treasure - At the playground, you discover that someone hid a treasure, but it suddenly disappears. Describe the adventure as you and your pals work together to solve the mystery and find the hidden treasure before someone else does.

The Mysterious Footprints - Strange footprints appear in your backyard after a rainy night. Write a story about your investigation to figure out what creature left the mysterious footprints and where it might have gone.

The Puzzle Piece Heist - Your class is putting together a big puzzle, but when you come back after recess, a piece is missing! Tell the tale of how you and your classmates become detectives to track down the missing puzzle piece and solve the puzzle mystery.

The Disappearing Snacks - Snacks in the lunchroom keep vanishing! Write about your efforts to catch the lunchtime snack thief in the act, setting up creative traps and using your detective skills to uncover the sneaky culprit.

The Secret Code in the Playground - You discover a secret code carved into the playground equipment. Describe the adventure as you and your friends decipher the code, leading you to hidden messages and unexpected discoveries.

The Ghostly Library - Rumors spread about a ghost haunting the school library. Write a story about how you and your friends spend the night in the library, uncovering clues to solve the mystery of the supposed ghost and its true identity.

The Case of the Whispering Woods - Strange whispers can be heard in the nearby woods. Describe your journey as you and your pals venture into the woods to uncover the source of the whispers and the mystery behind them.

The Disappearing Paintings - Artwork from the school walls goes missing overnight! Write a story about how your art class turns into a detective agency, working together to follow leads, gather evidence, and recover the stolen paintings.

The Alien Invasion Mystery - Bizarre lights and sounds fill the sky one night, leading to rumors of an alien invasion. Tell the tale of how you and your friends investigate the strange phenomena, only to discover a surprising and hilarious explanation for the mystery.