

Name _____

National Limerick Day

Answer Key

Correction Marks

Limericks are a distinct form of humorous poetry known for their specific structure. They consist of five lines and follow a particular meter and rhyme scheme. The traditional structure of a limerick is as follows:

First Line (A): The first line sets the stage by introducing a person or place, typically with a place name or a character's name.

Second Line (A): The second line, also rhyming with the first provides additional information or sets up the story.

Third Line (B): The third line introduces a twist or unexpected element that often adds humor or surprise to the limerick.

Fourth Line (B): The fourth line, rhyming with the third, further develops the narrative or humorous situation.

Fifth Line (A): The fifth line returns to the rhyme of the first and usually serves as a punchline or a conclusion to the limerick.

Complete Passage

Limericks are a distinct form of humorous poetry known for their specific structure. They consist of five lines and follow a particular meter and rhyme scheme. The traditional structure of a limerick is as follows:

First Line (A): The first line sets the stage by introducing a person or place, typically with a place name or a character's name.

Second Line (A): The second line, also rhyming with the first, provides additional information or sets up the story.

Third Line (B): The third line introduces a twist or unexpected element that often adds humor or surprise to the limerick.

Fourth Line (B): The fourth line, rhyming with the third, further develops the narrative or humorous situation.

Fifth Line (A): The fifth line returns to the rhyme of the first and usually serves as a punchline or a conclusion to the limerick.