

Name _____

Flag Day

Answer Key

Correction Marks

In a friendly neighborhood, there were a young boy named Jack who loved flags, especially the American flag. Every Flag Day, she would help his parents decorate their home with colorful flags, but this year, he wanted to do something special. Jack decided to organize a small Flag day parade for his friends and neighbors.

With determination and creativity, Jack and his friends made there own tiny flags and marched proudly down the street. They sang patriotic songs and learned about the history of the American flag. Jack's parade brought smiles to everyones faces, reminding them of the unity and pride represented by the flag. It was a beautiful Flag Day celebration that showed how a simply idea and a lot of enthusiasm could bring a community together in honor of a cherished symbol.

Complete Passage

In a friendly neighborhood, there was a young boy named Jack who loved flags, especially the American flag. Every Flag Day, he would help his parents decorate their home with colorful flags, but this year, he wanted to do something special. Jack decided to organize a small Flag Day parade for his friends and neighbors.

With determination and creativity, Jack and his friends made their own tiny flags and marched proudly down the street. They sang patriotic songs and learned about the history of the American flag. Jack's parade brought smiles to everyone's faces, reminding them of the unity and pride represented by the flag. It was a beautiful Flag Day celebration that showed how a simple idea and a lot of enthusiasm could bring a community together in honor of a cherished symbol.