

Name _____

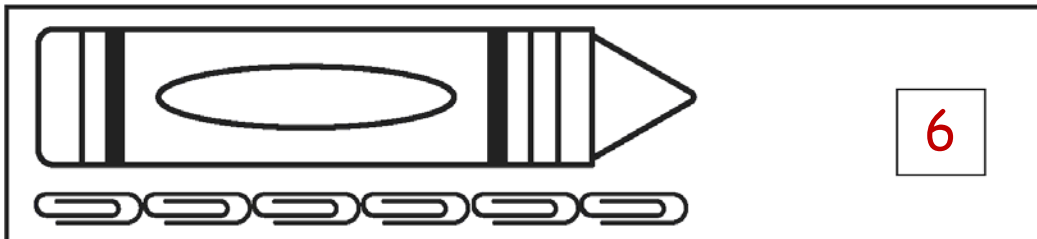

LET'S MEASURE

Measure the following images with the help of paper clips. Write your answer in the given box.

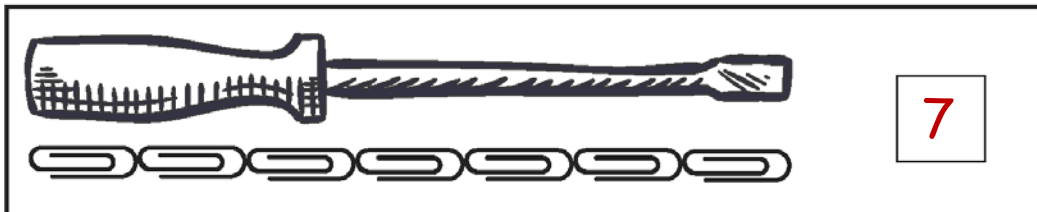

A black and white line drawing of a wrench is shown above a horizontal row of six paper clips. The paper clips are arranged in a straight line, and their combined length is approximately equal to the length of the wrench's handle.

6

A black and white line drawing of a crayon is shown above a horizontal row of six paper clips. The paper clips are arranged in a straight line, and their combined length is approximately equal to the length of the crayon.

6

A black and white line drawing of a screwdriver is shown above a horizontal row of seven paper clips. The paper clips are arranged in a straight line, and their combined length is approximately equal to the length of the screwdriver's handle.

7

A black and white line drawing of a pencil is shown above a horizontal row of seven paper clips. The paper clips are arranged in a straight line, and their combined length is approximately equal to the length of the pencil.

7

A black and white line drawing of a toothbrush is shown above a horizontal row of seven paper clips. The paper clips are arranged in a straight line, and their combined length is approximately equal to the length of the toothbrush's handle.

7