

Name _____

National Oreo Cookie Day

National Oreo Cookie Day, celebrated on March 6th each year, is a delightful occasion dedicated to honoring one of America's favorite cookies, the Oreo. It's a time for cookie lovers to indulge in the iconic sandwich cookie made up of two chocolate wafers with a creamy filling in the middle. People celebrate by enjoying Oreo cookies in various ways, such as dunking them in milk, using them in dessert recipes, or simply savoring them on their own. It's a day that brings together people of all ages to share the simple joy of this classic treat.

Directions: This passage has 6 errors. Find the errors and correct them.

In a cozy kitchen, their lived too best friends, Timmy, and Sarah. They both had a shared love for Oreo cookies, and every afternoon, they would gather in Timmy's kitchen to enjoy their favorite treat. one sunny day, they decided to embark on a grand Oreo cookie adventure. They gathered a tower of Oreos, some marshmallows, and chocolate chips, and they setted out to create the most epic Oreo cookie castle ever.

With their imagination and a little bit of frosting as glue, they stacked Oreos high, built cookie walls, and even added a moat of melted chocolate chips It was a cookie masterpiece! As they marveled at their creation, they couldn't resist taking a bite here and there. Soon, their cookie castle became a sweet memory, but their friendship and love for oreo cookies lasted forever, and they continued to have Oreo-filled adventures together.