

The Spectrum of Love in Lighthouse Town

In the coastal village of Luminar, the legendary lighthouse illuminates different colors, each representing a unique type of love - yellow for friendship, pink for romantic love, green for familial love, and blue for self-love. Jamie, a curious middle schooler, is determined to make the lighthouse shine in all its colors during the annual Luminar Festival. Throughout the week, Jamie embarks on heartwarming adventures, experiencing and understanding each shade of love. Write a story capturing Jamie's journey as they discover the diverse and rich tapestry of love in their life.
