Siblings Day

Answer Key

Correction Marks

In a cozy house with a big backyard, their lived too siblings named Lily and Max. They were like two peas in a pod, always sharing adventures and making each other laugh. One sunny day as they played in the garden, Lily discovered a treasure map hidden under a pile of leaves. It was old and crinkled, with a big "X" marking the spot where the treasure was said to be buried.

Excited and curious, Lily and max decided to embark on a treasure hunt together. With shoovels in hand, they followed the map's clues, digging and exploring their backyard. Along the way, they faced challenges and giggled at their imaginative ideas about what the treasure might be. As they reached the final spot, they unearthed a small chest filled with shiny marbles. Although the treasure wasnt gold or jewels, it was a reminder that the real treasure in their lives was the bond they shared as siblings, making every day an adventure worth celebrating together.
