

Name _____

Festivus

Answer Key

Correction Marks

Festivus is a humorous and fictional secular holiday that gained as popularity through the television show "Seinfeld." It is celebrated on December 23rd as an alternative to traditional year-end holidays like Christmas. The holiday was created by the character Frank Costanza, who deemed it a response to the commercialism and pressures associated with Christmas. Festivus features unique traditions, including the "Airing of Grievances," where people share they're grievances and complaints from the past year, and the "Feats of Strength," in which individuals engage in physical contests. A key symbol of Festivus is the "Festivus Pole," an unadorned Aluminum pole that stands in stark contrast to the elaborate decorations of Christmas trees, reflecting the holiday's simplicity and rejection of consumerism. While Festivus originated as a humorous concept on a sitcom, some people have adopted it as a lighthearted and unconventional way to celebrate the Holiday season.

Complete Passage

Festivus is a humorous and fictional secular holiday that gained popularity through the television show "Seinfeld." It is celebrated on December 23rd as an alternative to traditional year-end holidays like Christmas. The holiday was created by the character Frank Costanza, who deemed it a response to the commercialism and pressures associated with Christmas. Festivus features unique traditions, including the "Airing of Grievances," where people share their grievances and complaints from the past year, and the "Feats of Strength," in which individuals engage in physical contests. A key symbol of Festivus is the "Festivus Pole," an unadorned aluminum pole that stands in stark contrast to the elaborate decorations of Christmas trees, reflecting the holiday's simplicity and rejection of consumerism. While Festivus originated as a humorous concept on a sitcom, some people have adopted it as a lighthearted and unconventional way to celebrate the holiday season.