

Name _____

The Bill of Rights Day

Answers

1. We celebrate The Bill of Rights Day every year on December 15th.
2. December 15th is chosen for The Bill of Rights Day because, on this day in 1791, the first ten changes or "amendments" to the Constitution were accepted.
3. The Bill of Rights are the first ten changes or "amendments" to the Constitution, listing out some of the most important rights and freedoms for people in the United States.
4. The Bill of Rights Day is important for people in the United States because it reminds them of the freedoms and rights they have and the importance of these rights in their lives.
5. Schools might have special lessons about the Bill of Rights, and town halls might host events where people come together to talk and learn about them.