

Name _____

Woodrow Wilson: The President with Big Dreams for Peace

Answers

1. Before becoming president, Woodrow Wilson was a teacher and the head of a university.
2. Wilson introduced the Federal Reserve System to help keep the country's money safe.
3. World War I happened during Wilson's time as president.
4. The "Fourteen Points" were ideas proposed by Wilson that he believed would help the world avoid future wars.
5. Wilson's idea helped start the League of Nations, which later influenced the creation of the United Nations.